SHOOTING INVESTIGATION AND ARREST

Deputies responded to a reported shooting this morning shortly after 1:00AM in the 11200 block of Ashby Drive. Deputies arrived to find an adult male and female suffering from multiple gunshot wounds. The victims were transported to an area trauma center with serious injuries but are listed in stable condition. Witnesses advised that an acquaintance arrived at the home where several people were and was asked to leave. The subject refused to leave and an argument ensued outside the home in the front yard where he brandished a gun and shot the two adult victims multiple times. The suspect then left the property and while doing so, ran over the female victim with his vehicle. The suspect later turned himself into authorities. Joseph Alfonza Jackson, 43 of Spotsylvania was arrested by Detectives on three (3) counts of malicious wounding. Jackson was incarcerated at the Rappahannock Regional Jail under no bond.
